

Community & Achievement

Coppertop Consulting is a socially conscious consultancy that specializes in strategic planning, project development, project design, systems and operations, partnership, and resource management. Our team is led by a member of the Iowa Tribe of KS and NE tribe, who is also a member of the National Association of Social Work and Grant Professionals Association. With a wealth of experience serving on various nonprofit boards, committees, and advisory councils, our team is committed to weaving social impact and intentionality into every project we undertake. Whether you need support with a specific project or are looking for ongoing strategic guidance, we are here to help you achieve your goals and make a positive impact in your community.

VISION

To become the leading provider of innovative and sustainable solutions that positively impact individuals and communities worldwide by establishing sustainable strategies that empower community-based organizations to maximize their positive influence, promote human dignity, and foster unity through sustainable social and economic development endeavors.

MISSION

I aspire to offer humanitarian aid to disadvantaged groups across the globe. Helping those in need, I hope to spread love and compassion throughout communities, inspiring others to seek a deeper understanding of faith. My ultimate goal is to fulfill the gospel message in unique and unconventional ways, utilizing federal grants and contracts to fund initiatives. I establish partnerships with the government and international organizations, aligning their needs with those in need around the world.
